April 30 '46

Dear Johnny,

Well, I guess I have lots to say and don't quite know where to begin.

I'd like first to wish you all the luck in the world and happiness to boot because you sure deserve it.

I also hope to see you this summer and always if possible. I guess we can always remember the fun we have had together like New Years especially and Basketball games and others. I hope we can always be together and have fun.

By the way, why don't you remember me once in awhile like when you strutt up to Blacksburg. Well must close. Would it be wrong to sign like this "Love" Joe

The Castle 1946

The title of our annual publication is adopted from the name of our historic little town and school. The town was named for George, Lord Fincastle, eldest son of Lord Dunmore, Governor of Virginia in 1772. "Fin" is a bourn in Pethshire, Scotland, and "Fincastle" the site of an ancient castle upon it. The father of Lord Fincastle was a representative peer of Scotland in the British Parliament before he was commissioned Governor of Virginia

FINCASTLE, VIRGINIA

"DOWN MEMORY LANE"

On the downbeat of our musical journey through Memory Lane, we invite you to come with us in this 1946 CASTLE. On pages four and five we greet our able leaders. The melody of the CASTLE Staff is pictured on page six. On pages eight through twelve will be found the Class of '46. The journey continues with "As Time Goes By" on page thirteen. "Daisies Won't Tell," but pull a petal from the daisy on page fourteen for the future of each Senior. For "All the Things We Are," turn to page fifteen. Pages sixteen through twenty-one feature the Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen. The grace notes of our school are the council, clubs, teams, etc., found on pages twenty-four through thirty-nine. "Aren't You Glad You're You?" Turn to pages forty and forty-one and see. We have left "Our Souvenirs" on pages forty-two and forty-three. The 1946-47 Freshman Class is sincerely welcomed on page forty-four. With the help of our advertisers we bring this Memory Lane journey to a close.

Highlights of the Past Four Years

1942-43

Forty-three green freshmen begin big ordeal in new school building.
Motto: "We have just begun to fight." How true!
Entertained by Sophomores at Reception.

1943-44

Roll drops to thirty-eight.
Class plays host to little Freshmen at Reception.
Sophomores buy United States flag for home room.

1944-45

Mrs. Painter and Mrs. Bolton, our sponsors, give party for the 41 of us.
Lost by three Junior girls: Appendix—Appendix—Appendix.
Some of us star in "Jerry of Jericho Road."
Fred Wertz joins the Navy.
Juniors entertain Seniors at Reception.

1945-46

It isn't a new class, it isn't a new school, it is just the Principal of the thing.
Senior rings arrive in early October.
Twenty out of thirty-three Seniors are made members of the National Beta Club.
Seniors on Gremlin Gazette and CASTLE staffs.
Central—Kostel's—Covington.
Class of '46 enjoys Junior-Senior banquet.

"AREN'T YOU GLAD YOU'RE YOU?"

HERE IS SOMETHING LEFT FOR THEE— "AMONG OUR SOUVENIRS"

Listen my patrons and don't blink an eye,
Hear the future of Seniors of Fincastle Hi.
It runs like the alphabet with an A, B and C,
It's simple and crazy till it ends up at Z.
With ladies first and gentlemen last,
This is the prediction that will come to pass.

Joe Anna Adamson leaves to Nancy Steffey her height,
Phyllis Arnold to Geraldine to stay out late at night.
To Phyllis Dodd, Mary Ellen Booth leaves her nights for sleep,
While Ruth Brickey to Norine Baker leaves her Navy to keep.
Now to Shirley Naff, Dorothy Buckland, they all say,
Leaves her ability to flirt, in a round about way.
Lorene Cahoon, quiet, neat and shy,
Leaves to Jean Saville that catching sigh.
Irene Caldwell! May her boy friends increase,
Leaves to all of them, their axle grease.
Madge Noffsinger shall receive from Mildred Green,
The prettiest form that you ever have seen.
Dorothy Huffman, the sad girl regrets,
Must leave Betty Spigle the returning vets.
Leaves Martha Martin, with a winking eye,
Her ability, to Mary Ellen Burns, to catch a guy.
Genevieve Maupin, who flirts all the time,
Leaves to Muriel Dalton her technique sublime.
Patty Lee Painter, just a teacher at heart,
Furnishes Betty Anne Pullen with an excellent start.
Edith Powell leaves to Reba Vass,
All her fondness for the English class.
And Mary Anne Rader with dimples so deep,
Leaves Betty Burch a piano to keep,
Betty Lou Reid with curls to spare,
Leaves her boys to any of those who care.
Maggie Rhodes, whom you can't deceive,
Leaves Audrey Lee some tricks up her sleeve.

Louise Shanks from Hill Top will depart,
So Dorothy Crouch may then make her start.
Ruth Wood, with pretty eyes of blue,
Leaves her red tresses to any of you.
Donald Austin, who likes anything,
Leaves to Earl Harris his ability to sing.
Norman Bolton, the boy that loves to learn,
Leaves Ryland Towne his books to burn.
Ben Bullard, whose hair will fade,
Leaves a bottle of peroxide to Bobby Waid.
Mack Bullard, the most studious of all,
Leaves Billy Peters the basketball.
Linwood Bush, always so neat,
Leaves Dennis Epperly the back row seat.
David Crawford, the athletic boy,
Leaves Howard Caldwell his fame and joy.
Loraine Cronise, wolf at the brink,
Leaves Weldon Rhodes that charming wink.
Tommy Ellis, that blond headed chap,
Leaves Jacob Simmons his afternoon nap.
Johnny Kessler, the boy we adore,
Leaves Lawrence Thompson holding the floor.
Carl Lee, the gallant at heart,
Says to Rosa Lee Camper, "I hate to depart."
Ray Lee, the man about town,
Leaves Jimmy McDowell his cap and gown.
Lylburn Rieley, neat in appearance,
Leaves Edward Harris his past experience.
Leonard Tucker, the attentive young scholar,
Leaves to Nash Powell his ability to holler.

Dear J. B." ("Jonny-Boy")

Johnny, remember the night we sang at the Buchannan church after [illegible] ? Well, from then on I have looked on you as a special special, special friend. Not a special special (well you know)) (This is getting complicated) Jonny. I really mean it. You are a gr-r-r-and fr-r-r-iend of mine.

J. B., I want to thank you for all the help you have made to me house coming me home. Someday I'll [illegible] three times.

Johnny, some day when you are drawing "The Adventures of the F.H.S. Mob" for the New York Times, will you fly down to Georgia to see me and the little "Bench trees." (and?)

And now!

Señor Jones,

Yo espero que [illegible] (except to be only.) all the luck in the world.

Muchas gracias por [illegible] - ship.

Love,

Billy

P.S. Don't forget all the Times, good + bad, we have had with the Bench.

Hi Johnny!
Best of wishes to a swell pal. Will miss seeing you around next year. Don't forget the 4 times your car has been parked after basketball games. Thanks a lot for all you have done for me.
Good luck
Laurence

Well Johnny it looks like the fateful day is growing nigh. I swear I will never forget all the good times we have had in classes and with the gang. When you are reading this it is about 20 years think of me and try to let me know how you are doing. I hope that some day you will be as famous as Wilbur Wright. If you ever get in a light! and the Lunatics of Duluth. Just look me up. I will be the chief engineer of the Chicago-Detroit company. Now remember if going get tough and things seem hard. You can always count on your old friend Mark Ballard. Hard but hard.

A Friend always

Best of luck to a swell guy. Keep up the flying and good luck to you. George!

Hello Johnny,
Best wishes to a swell person. May you have loads of success & happiness in the future. Always remember Physics class.
a pal,
"Judy"

Well Johnny, we've went through many years of school together and I have enjoyed having you as a Classmate. Best of Success.
"Bud"

I see Johnny, I've been (nice) knowing you through school.
A friend,
Lowell S.

Well,
I more this

Dear Jennie.

We have been the swellest friends that a fellow could hope to have. Jennie I will always remember our good times together. And will always try to keep in touch with you. I hope at the end of this year we will not mean our separation for good. just only in school life.

If you ever need a friend I will always be a good friend around. But that will never happen not to you.
